

7-DAY INSIDE PASSAGE CRUISE

Round Trip Vancouver

August 1 - 8, 2020

Saturday - Saturday

This is the classic Alaska cruise, sailing round trip from Vancouver, threading through the Inside Passage where fir forests slip by seemingly close enough to touch. Experience the frontier towns, sheltered waterways and calving glaciers on this Inside Passage Cruise, aboard the elegant ms Koningsdam. Alaska “The land of the Midnight Sun” is truly a unique state, and a must see for everyone. Tracy Arm with the Twin Sawyer Glaciers, presents a spellbinding glacier-viewing experience, witnessing the astonishing crash of mighty icebergs or the utter silence of crystalline fjords. Be sure to have your camera handy as you will see and experience sights that will amaze you, as you listen for the “white thunder,” a glacier calving into the sea. Explore Juneau the State’s Capital, then visit Skagway, the Klondike Gold Rush National Historic Park which boasts restored buildings, wooden boardwalks and swinging door saloons. The final port is the village of Ketchikan, famous for its Totem Poles. You arrive at the port of Vancouver where you will transfer for your return flight home.

Tracy Arm Scenic Cruising, only Alaska can surround you on three sides with flowing rivers of ice. Explore the stunning beauty of Tracy Arm and the Twin Sawyer Glaciers. Imagine cruising past one dramatic tidewater glacier after another -- where ever you cruise in Alaska be sure to watch for Whales and other sea life as they can be found in an of the waters on this cruise. You have to get out on deck and watch for them they can put on quite a show.

Juneau, the state capital, surrounded by the lush Tongass National Forest and with Mendenhall Glacier at its back door. You will have the opportunity to participate in many exciting things; try a tram ride - to the top of Mt. Roberts, or a feast at at Taku Glacier Lodge via floatplane. Enjoy a Whale watch excursion with a visit to the Mendenhall Glacier or try a flight seeing excursion.

Skagway This Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park honors a storied past straight out of the late 1890s, where the prospectors of 1898 gathered their provisions for the grueling trip over the mountains to the Klondike gold fields. Walk down the creaky boardwalk to the taverns and shops. Ride in a vintage parlor car of the White Pass & Yukon Route Railroad.

Glacier Bay National Park has been an irresistible cruise attraction ever since the 1880's. By noon you are at the face of Margerie Glacier, close enough to hear the glacier groaning and to feel the drifting spray made as a tower of ice the size of a three-story building breaks off and thunders into the sea. When an iceberg is born, the sound is like thunder. You relish every moment, marveling at the sights and sounds of calving glaciers.

Ketchikan clings to the shores of Tongass Narrows and drapes the mountains. You can view the world’s largest collection of totem poles, kayak the waterfront, enjoy a city tour, shop, or try your luck at Salmon fishing.
