The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

The archeological site of Pompeii is entirely pedestrianized, and the only access is via a steep ancient Roman street which is uphill and paved with large, slippery cobblestones. Therefore, the site is not "accessible" for those with mobility issues. Throughout the archeological site, you will need to navigate large cobblestones and steep sidewalks. There are no vehicles inside the site, which is extremely vast.

In Florence, you must be prepared to stand on your feet and walk for 3 hours with only 1 restroom stop. There is no seating available during the walking tour. You will be walking around very crowded areas. The streets are cobblestone, with narrow sidewalks. Some streets are pedestrianized, but many others allow cars, motorbikes, and small public transportation vehicles. To complete your sightseeing tour, you should expect to walk a minimum of 1.4 miles (2.3 kilometers), plus 1.1 miles (1.7 kilometers) to return to the hotel at the end of the guided tour.

The ferry boat trip to the isle of Capri is dependent on sea and wind conditions and may depart from Sorrento or Naples, with the length of the sailing varying between 30 and 50 minutes each way. This full day excursion requires using small minibuses to shuttle from the hotel to the port of Sorrento for your ferry boat ride to Capri. There is limited seating on the minibuses, which cannot be reserved, so you must be prepared to ride standing up and holding on to handrails as the vehicles travel the narrow, winding road to the port of Sorrento. While the ride is under 5 minutes, upper body strength is required for your safety.

Venice is not accessible to vehicles and requires navigating large crowds, narrow streets, and climbing over multiple bridges with steps up and down. The included sightseeing will take place with a mix of motorboat rides and walking. There will be 3 motorboat rides, each lasting 20-30 minutes. The walking tour requires the ability to walk and stand for 90 minutes, covering approximately 1.2 miles (1.9 kilometers) and a climb up and down of approximately 100 steps. Agility is required to board the gondola boats if participating in the optional tour.

To complete the full day walking tour of Rome and Colosseum visit, you must be able to walk and stand on your feet for a total of 4 hours with a lunch break of about 60 minutes in between. There is NO seating available during the tour, not even at the Colosseum. Expect to be walking a minimum of 2.2 miles (3.6 km) during the day and climb up and down approximately 200 steps (100 during the walking tour and 100 inside the Colosseum).

Italy imposes strict limits on tour bus circulation, and mandatory drop off and pick up points, especially in historic areas such as Rome, Sorrento, Positano and Amalfi. The same applies for the optional tour sightseeing outlined in the itinerary. All these areas require navigating large crowds, extensive walking over cobblestones, uneven and often narrow sidewalks, and occasionally unpaved terrain with loose gravel.

For more information visit <https://gateway.gocollette.com/link/1392118>

To complete the optional visit of the Vatican Museum and St. Peter's Basilica you must be able to walk and stand on your feet for a total of 5 hours with only 1 break (approximately 20 minutes). There is NO seating available during the tour and no air conditioning in the Museum, which is often overcrowded. The amount of walking varies according to the crowds on the day of your visit, but you must expect to be walking a minimum distance of 2.6 miles (4.2 km) in addition to climbing down about 120 steps to exit the Vatican Museum and up another 30 steps to reach St. Peter's Basilica.

While on Capri, you will transfer to a smaller boat for a panoramic sailing of the island, boarding via a gangplank that has railings but may move around due to waves. Back on the island, you will use a mix of local transportation to reach Capri village, which may include the funicular and/or minibuses. In the case of minibuses, there will be limited seating, and you may have to stand with the use of handrails while the vehicle winds its way up and down from the port to Capri village. In both cases, you must be prepared to stand in line for 10-30 minutes with no seating or shelter as you wait for transportation. Travelers prone to motion sickness or seasickness should take proper precautions.

Even though tickets have been pre-booked to enter the Colosseum, you must be prepared to stand in line for up to 15-30 minutes, without shelter or seating. You will go through an airport-style security check. Once inside, you will have to climb 25 steps to gain access to the first level from which there is a view of the arena. Please note that these steps are about 20 inches tall (50 cm) and that there are no handrails. There is a total of 100 of these tall steps to climb to the top level. While there is an elevator inside the site, its use is reserved to people with disabilities and therefore not accessible to our groups.

The included activities are not suitable for travelers using motorized scooters, wheelchairs, walkers, or Zimmer-frames.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

This comprehensive tour features multiple long bus transfers exceeding 3 hours. In particular, the transfer from Rome to Sorrento requires 4+ hours of driving. The full-day transfer from Sorrento to Florence entails 7+ hours of driving, and the transfers from Florence to Venice and from Venice to Stresa both exceed 5 hours of driving.

Please note that most shops and businesses in Italy and Switzerland are closed on Sundays and on national/religious holidays.

*The Colosseum dates and times are all subject to change based on availability of reservations.

*On occasion, due to inclement weather, your boat trip to Capri may not be available. Should this occur, we will make alternate sightseeing arrangements. In the case of the scenic boat ride around the Isle of Capri not being able to operate, you will visit Anacapri village instead.

Isola Bella and the Borromeo Palace & Gardens are open from March 15 to October 31 (though there are small differences every year based on when the closest weekend falls). If you are travelling between November 1 and March 14, you will enjoy a scenic cruise of the Borromean Islands and a visit to Pallanza village instead. If you are in Lake Maggiore between March 15 and April 15 the Borromeo Palace might be closed mid-week.

In the event of adverse weather conditions, the dinner at Pescatori Island may be held at your hotel instead.

Due to the unpredictable nature of the events schedule at the Vatican, on certain dates it may be necessary to visit the Vatican Museums at a different time or even on a different day. For example, when the Vatican option falls on a Wednesday, the order of included and optional tour days may be reversed. The Vatican Museum is closed on most Sundays and on all Catholic holidays. There is no air conditioning in the museum.

Most museums in Florence are closed on Mondays, including the Academy Gallery and the Uffizi. Most museums in Florence require reservations to access. In order to reduce waiting in line, we suggest you reserve your ticket online prior to departure if you plan to visit the Academy Gallery or the Uffizi during your free time in Florence. On the day you transfer to Florence, you can expect to arrive at the hotel around 4:30 p.m. The following day, you can expect your included tour of Florence to conclude by 1:00 p.m. If booking tickets for one of the above museums, allow yourselves 30 minutes to reach them from your hotel and/or the end point of your walking tour.

The optional tour to the Vatican Museums and St. Peter's Basilica must be booked at least 90 days prior to departure and is not guaranteed while on tour.

Modest dress (covering your knees and shoulders for women and long trousers for men) is required when visiting religious sites, sanctuaries, basilicas, etc.

Hotel check-in on your day of arrival is 3:00 p.m. Rooms may not be available prior to that time.

On occasion your hotel may be located in one of Sorrento's neighboring towns or in a scenic location along the coast.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first come, first served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability. When reserving single accommodations, be advised that single rooms in Italy are often smaller in size.

To complete your tour, we include round-trip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

Our return transfers will depart from Stresa hotel for Milan airport.

Our air travelers will depart from Milan airport.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Please be advised, many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.

Book Now rates valid until Mar 13, 2026, valid on air inclusive packages only.

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.

Then, your evening of fun continues at one of the area's most popular dining establishments. Experience an authentic and traditional dinner served family-style! Savor local wines and Tuscan food and enjoy the entertainment. It's a memorable – truly Italian – evening out that you won't want to miss! *The visit to the monastery may not be possible when weddings are taking place. Experience the romance that can only be found in Venice – La Serenissima – while traveling on its famous waterways. Partake in one of Venice's most famous pastimes, a gondola cruise. Take a pleasant stroll toward the Grand Canal to board your gondola. As you relax in your elegant watercraft, your gondolier navigates the Grand Canal as well as smaller side canals. Admire the scenery as you listen to the melodic voice serenading you in true Italian style, just like in those romantic Italian movies! This option operates weather-permitting. Duration: Approximately 1 hour. Please note a minimum of 15 passengers is required. Transportation is not included.

Rome

The Vatican Museums and St. Peter's Basilica

$119 USD

The Vatican Museums are not only home to one of the world's greatest collections of art, but also to the world-famous Sistine Chapel. Priceless artifacts from ancient Egypt, Etruscan Italy, and cultures around the world are preserved in the Vatican's palaces, galleries, halls, and rooms. Follow a local expert guide on a three hour, in-depth visit through this vast collection. Highlights include the Gallery of Maps, the Gallery of Tapestries and, of course, a visit to the Sistine Chapel. The chapel's famous ceiling frescoes took Michelangelo four years to complete. His brilliant Last Judgment, which rests on the altar wall, was a topic of controversy for centuries. Other walls feature paintings by Pietro Perugino, Sandro Botticelli, Cosimo Rosselli, and Domenico Ghirlandaio. Your final stop will be at St. Peter's Basilica, one of the most important churches in Christendom, and until recently, the largest in the world. Please note, this option must be booked at least 90 days prior to departure, and availability is not guaranteed while on tour. Due to the nature of this option, it is non-refundable. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 15 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

An Evening in Trastevere Food Tour

$149 USD

Follow your expert guide on an engaging tour of Rome's more epicurean side. Your culinary journey takes place in la Vecchia Roma, the city's historical center, where medieval architecture meets ivy-clung houses. The lively chatter from the many eateries sprinkled throughout the neighborhood echoes off the cobblestone streets. Partake in the local tradition of aperitivo (pre-dinner drink) before tasting your way through Rome's most representative street food, such as supplì (fried rice balls). Top off your culinary exploration with a taste of artisanal gelato and learn how to distinguish it from factory-made versions, ensuring you never eat a bad one again! Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Transportation is included.
